

Capital Hash House Harriers – Run 2079 - Mixo - Chisholm to Cooma

Well, it started well with a run up and through lower Chisholm, past my old House in Enid Lorimer, ahhh the Pizza memories. It was also a good memory for me as all the older runners will remember my girls around the circle in the back yard, well my youngest did her first full hash run with this run, hopefully many more.

The fun started to happen when we started moving through upper Chisholm and things started to get hairy. The group I was in got totally lost near the railway line, mainly because Ankle Biter is so short he couldn't see the trail over the long grass. Anyhow a loooong run/walk of around 8km, but a pleasant day and drink stop made it worth it.

Run Report – Ankle Biter- Got to the fence near the railway line and thought, it won't go through here...wrong. Checks were a bit dodgy score 2.2

Walk Report – Pop T- A long way, good checks, but got lost score 5.5 GM promptly dropped the score to -30. Second walk reporter for validation KWhine, used all her swear words on the run, .really?

Virgin– Alex Pitman, Centrefold took the down down for her as she had a better drinking offer elsewhere!
